The Pinelands Commission is comprised of 15 Commissioners - 7 appointed by the Governor of New Jersey; one appointed by each of the seven Pinelands counties; and one appointed by the U.S. Secretary of the Interior. The gubernatorial appointees are subject to the review and consent of the NJ Senate. Members of the Commission serve staggered three-year terms and are uncompensated for their service. Commissioners devote significant personal time to their Pinelands duties. The full Commission meets monthly. Additionally, like many legislative bodies, the Commission is divided into various committees, which also meet monthly. Members typically serve on two committees each. There are also regular public meetings ranging from public hearings on specific development projects and regulatory issues to forums and panel discussions on topical issues. Each of these responsibilities may require many hours of review and preparation, meetings with other agencies and stakeholders and consultation with Pinelands staff. To follow are brief biographical sketches of all of the Commissioners.

Mark S. Lohbauer, Chairman -- A resident of Pennsauken, Mr. Lohbauer joined the Pinelands Commission in July 2011. Since 2004, Lohbauer has been a principal of JGSC Group, a retail market-making firm that focuses on revitalizing downtown commercial corridors. Prior to joining JGSC, he served as the Director of Policy & Communications for the New Jersey Economic Development Authority, following several years as the Assistant State Treasurer and practicing law in Philadelphia. A former member of the Pennsauken Township Committee and Camden County Board of Chosen Freeholders, Lohbauer has long been active in environmental issues, primarily in the promotion of alternatives to waste incineration. He holds a Juris Doctor degree from Rutgers University.

Alan W. Avery, Jr. -- Mr. Avery served as the Ocean County representative on the Commission from 1983 to 2005 and was reappointed as the county representative in December of 2013. He served as the Commission's Vice chairman from 1995 to 2005. Avery retired as the Ocean County Administrator, after many years of service as the county's Planning Director and Director of Solid Waste Management. Mr. Avery holds an undergraduate degree from Colgate University, as well as a master's degree of City and Regional Planning from Rutgers University.

Candace McKee Ashmun -- Ms. Ashmun has served as a member of the Pinelands Commission since its creation in 1979. She has also served on the State Planning Commission and as Executive Director and three-term President of the Association of New Jersey Environmental Commissions. Ms. Ashmun is a trustee of the Coalition for Affordable Housing and the Environment and Vice President of the Board of the Fund for New Jersey. At the local level, she has served on the Bedminster Board of Education, Board of Adjustment and Environmental Commission, and served as Vice Chair of the Far Hills Planning Board. A private consultant to nonprofit organizations, Ms. Ashmun has received numerous awards, including the American Planning Association Distinguished Leadership Award.

Bob Barr – Mr. Barr joined the Commission as a gubernatorial appointee in March 2015. A resident of Ocean City, Cape May County, Mr. Barr is a Community Activist for the disabled. In that capacity, he reviews legislation at the Federal and State level and makes recommendations for legislators through the Regional Family Support Council. He also works one-on-one with other disabled individuals, helping them to access information and support concerning disabilities, their rights and available assistance. Mr. Barr serves as the President of the Ocean City Community Association. He is also a member of the Board of Directors for both the Ocean City Housing Authority and the Ocean City Exchange Club. Mr. Barr holds a Bachelor's of Arts in Communications from Richard Stockton College.

William J. Brown -- Mr. Brown has represented Cape May County on the Commission since 1981. A licensed insurance agent, real estate broker and certified real estate appraiser, Mr. Brown is the president of the William J. Brown Agency, Inc., a real estate and insurance firm in Marmora. He is the former mayor of Upper Township and currently serves as a member of the community's planning board. Mr. Brown is past Director and President of 1st National Bank of Tuckahoe, and past member and President of the Cape May County Board of Taxation. A World War II Navy veteran, Mr. Brown is retired from 25 years of service as an Engineer at the Woodbine State School. He currently serves as Vice President of Jersey Cape Diagnostic Training and Opportunity Center.

Joseph DiBello -- Mr. DiBello was appointed as the U.S. Secretary of the Interior's designee on the Commission in November 2012. A resident of Ardmore, Pa., DiBello serves as the Superintendent of the National Parks Service's Washington Rochambeau Revolutionary Route National Historic Trail. Based in Philadelphia, DiBello guides the planning and management of this newly-authorized trail through nine states and Washington D.C. in partnership with National Park Service units, National Heritage Areas, federal agencies and many local and private organizations and sites. The groups commemorate and interpret the journey of the Continental and the French forces during the American Revolution. DiBello began his career in the U.S. Department of the Interior as a planner in 1974 and joined the National Park Service in 1981 conducting special studies and planning projects. He holds a bachelor's degree in social science from Drexel University and a master of business administration in 2006 from Temple University.

Sean W. Earlen -- Mr. Earlen has served as Burlington County's representative on the Commission since August 2011. A resident of Lumberton, Mr. Earlen is the Director of Real Estate & Acquisitions for Constructural Dynamics, Inc. of Fairless Hills, PA. He is involved in overseeing the company's land-use functions as well as its manufacturing and industrial locations in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. He coordinated the sale of 950 acres to the States Green Acres program, has managed the company's 3,200-acre Forest Stewardship Program, which includes approximately 1,000 Pinelands acres, and is responsible for promoting programs that promote wildlife habitat on company-owned woodlands in Eagleswood and Stafford. Earlen holds a bachelor's in business administration from Delaware Valley College in Doylestown.

Paul E. Galletta -- A lifelong resident of Hammonton, Mr. Galletta began serving as Atlantic County's representative on the Pinelands Commission in April 2007. Mr. Galletta is the owner and director of the Atlantic Blueberry Company, the largest cultivated blueberry farm in the United States. He is a member of the Atlantic County Board of Agriculture, the Atlantic County Parks and Environment Advisory Commission, the New Jersey Beekeepers Advisory Board, the New Jersey Farm Bureau, the North American Blueberry Council, the U.S. High Bush Blueberry Council and the New Jersey Blueberry Advisory Council. Additionally, he was a member of Governor Chris Christie's transition team for Agriculture. Mr. Galletta is the past chairman of the Hammonton Parks and Recreation Commission, and he is a member of the Hammonton Lake Water Quality Committee and the Hammonton Environmental Commission. He helped organize and is a current member of H.O.P.E. (Hammonton Organized for a Positive Environment), and he is vice president of the Hammonton Italian Sons and Daughters' board of trustees. Mr. Galletta was active in many youth sports programs in Hammonton.

Jane Jannarone -- Ms. Jannarone joined the Commission as Cumberland County's representative in June 2014. She is a Real Estate Broker with more than 25 years of experience. Ms. Jannarone owns and manages her Real Estate Company in Vineland. She serves on the Greater Vineland Chamber of Commerce, Cumberland County Board of Realtors, the Welcome Home Committee for Veterans, and is a former member of the Cumberland County Board of Chosen Freeholders. Ms. Jannarone grew up on the Maurice River in Millville. The 256-acre property is home to wild rice marshes, white cedar swamps, pine trees and habitat for bald eagles, and it was preserved in honor of her father, as the Harold N. Peek Preserve.

Edward Lloyd -- Mr. Lloyd joined the Commission as a gubernatorial appointee in 2002. Possessing a strong background in New Jersey environmental law, Mr. Lloyd is Clinical Professor of Environmental Law at Columbia Law School.
